

Matrix of type & Story by location	Gateway	Orientation	Edge	Landmark	Place
	Welcome to the District	Location, historical	boundaries: retaining walls and stormweather features	unique signature works	useful, functional gathering places
Type
Mural	x			xx
Photo Opportunity	x
Statues/Sculptures	x		x	xxxx
Light beam/bat Signal	x
Garden		x	xx	xx	xxx
High Point of St. Paul	x			x
benches	x	x	xx	x	xx
Natural landscapes & plant life	x		x
Accessible ramps
Geocaching/treasurehunt/scavenger hunt		x
Interactive: online, nature, in-person/onsite	x	x		x	x
Multiple languages		x
QR codes		x			x
Mosaic/visual narrative		x			x
Walking loop		x			x
Historical Materials (golf balls, bottlecaps, post-its)		x		x
Golf ball art		x
Animal Habitat			x		x
Story along retaining walls/borders			x
Veteran Memorial		x	x	x
Railroad Cars				x	x
Whirlpool Merry Go Round				x
Prayer Meeting circle					xxx
Reflection art					x
Bike Racks					x
Story
Values		x			x
Immigration/welcome	x	x		x	x
Area history		x		x	x
Jobs/Work (farming, union, labor)	x	x		x	x
Labor movement history	x	x		x
Working class, diversity, change	x	x		x golf club history		x
nature as metaphor for culture (convergence, growth)	x		x	x	x
Ancestry				x
Historical Figures - either archetype or actual		x		x
Honor garden (for underrepresented veteran groups)		x	x	x
Wildlife	x	x	xxx
Plant life	x	x	xx	x	x
High Point	x			x
Wind Dials				x
Pet Garden (rainbow bridge, rock garden)				x
Community garden		x	x		xxx
Connections to public transit & other neighborhoods	x	x
Sensory engagement (smell, feel, etc)		x	x	x
Different cultural forms of rest (meditation, solitude, family, walking, prayer)		x			x
Representations of in-group inclusivity/intersectionality throughout eras				x
Groups living, not just history				x	x
Connections between cultures				x	x
A Space For Us - inclusive to golfer, roofers, communities				x
Intergenerational					x